

Positive Pandas

News Letter

Welcome to Positive Pandas Class! As we settled into our new classes, we created our own panda pictures to be displayed.

All of the children got stuck in with their learning and became explorers in their new environments. The children particularly enjoyed going on a nature hunt around the grounds as part of our science this half term.

